

OECD ECONOMIC SURVEYS

NORWAY

ISSN 0376-6438, e-ISSN 1609-7513

Issue 1, January 2016

Consulta en línea desde MEYSS

Table of contents

Basic statistics of Norway	7
Abbreviations and acronyms	8
Executive summary	9
Adjusting to lower oil incomes and monitoring the property-market boom	10
Bolstering competitiveness on a wide range of fronts	10
Improving skills to help productivity and inclusiveness	10
Assessment and recommendations	13
Recent macroeconomic developments and near-term prospects underscore the main challenges	17
Ensuring price and financial stability	20
Getting the fiscal rule right, ensuring efficient tax and public spending	23
Boosting productivity through a more supportive business environment and stronger competition	29
Boosting output and inclusiveness by improving skills and encouraging labour supply	34
Tackling environmental issues	43
Bibliography	45
Annex. Progress in structural reform	47

Thematic chapters

Chapter 1. Addressing the challenges in higher education	53
The Norwegian tertiary education system: Key features and challenges	54
Promoting efficiency and quality in higher education	72
Recommendations on addressing the challenges in higher education	87
Bibliography	87
Chapter 2. Policy challenges for agriculture and rural areas	91
Policy efficiency is the central question	92
Reforming agricultural support	95
Prospects and challenges in selected non-agricultural sectors: Fishing, aquaculture and tourism	108
Regional policy and rural development	114
Avenues for improving local-government efficiency	115
Summing up the challenges	123
Recommendations on the rural economy	125
Bibliography	125

Boxes

1. Norway's National Skills Strategy project	35
2. Corporate board gender quotas in Norway	41
1.1. Higher education in Norway: Main features	56
1.2. Mergers: International trends and experiences	73
1.3. Funding arrangements for higher education institutions	76
1.4. Student financial support	83
1.5. Quality assurance mechanisms for tertiary education	85
2.1. The OECD's approach to estimating support for the agricultural sector	102
2.2. New Zealand's and Australia's experiences in substantial reform of support for agriculture	107
2.3. Food security: Does maximising domestic food production make sense?	108
2.4. Past restructuring of Norway's municipalities	119
2.5. The Coordination Reform in health care	120
2.6. Housing valuation for Norway's wealth tax: A potential tool for municipality property taxation	123

Tables

1. Macroeconomic indicators	19
2. Possible extreme shocks to the Norwegian economy	20
1.1. Funding components by type of higher education institutions	76
2.1. Agricultural support in Norway: Budgetary support, including tax relief	98
2.2. Agricultural support: Non-budgetary forms of support	99
2.3. The scale and composition of Norway's agricultural support according to the OECD's support-estimate system	104
2.4. Commissions and white papers underway relating to the agricultural sector	105
2.5. Key features of policy regarding the fishing industry	110
2.6. The division of responsibilities across levels of government	116
2.7. Municipal and county financing systems	118
2.8. Coverage and value of tax on immovable property across municipalities	122
2.9. Policy issues relating to rural economies	124

Figures

1. Norway's gross domestic product per capita is high	14
2. Norway scores well in measures of well-being	15
3. Key challenges for the Norwegian economy	16
4. Recent macroeconomic developments	18
5. Inflation, household borrowing and house prices	21
6. Capital requirements on Norwegian banks	22
7. Fiscal balances and the wealth fund	24
8. Norway's tax burden is relatively high	25
9. Norway's economic structure	29
10. Norway is losing ground on the OECD's product-market-regulation (PMR) indicators	30
11. New enterprise creation, trend cycle	31
12. Norwegian agricultural support is among the heaviest	32
13. OECD indicators of regulation in non-manufacturing sectors	34
14. Norway's educational performance falls behind its investment	36

15. Tertiary education indicators	37
16. Norway's expenditure on tertiary education is well above the OECD average ...	38
17. Norway's employment rates are high	40
18. Share of women board members in the largest publicly listed companies	41
19. A sizeable minority of the population are on disability benefit	42
20. Norway's per capita greenhouse gas emissions are middle ranking	44
1.1. Expenditure on tertiary education	55
1.2. Higher education institutions in Norway	57
1.3. Ratio of students to staff in tertiary educational institutions	58
1.4. Students' satisfaction on the quality of tertiary education	59
1.5. Share of young tertiary graduates with low literacy skill	60
1.6. Tertiary education outcomes	62
1.7. Completion rates in tertiary education	63
1.8. Tertiary completion status	63
1.9. Estimated graduation gains from raising completion rates to best international level	65
1.10. The impact of social background on tertiary participation and completion	66
1.11. Performance of ninth-grade students by parents' education	67
1.12. Norway's future skills, demand and supply projections	68
1.13. Student enrolments in tertiary education and trends in STEM disciplines	69
1.14. Unemployment rates among graduates with master's degrees in STEM	70
1.15. World top university rankings and research indicators	71
1.16. International students in tertiary education	79
1.17. Internal rate of return of a person attaining tertiary education	81
1.18. Earnings premium from tertiary education	82
2.1. Key features of the rural economy	93
2.2. Well-being differences between urban and rural areas	94
2.3. Ratio of disposable income to wages and salaries by region	95
2.4. Trends in agriculture	97
2.5. Regional annual payments for a 30-cow dairy farm	99
2.6. Norway's heavy tariffs on agricultural products partly contribute to high food prices	100
2.7. Norway's agricultural support	103
2.8. Trends in fishing	109
2.9. Trends in aquaculture	111
2.10. Trends in tourism	113
2.11. High price is a major barrier of competitiveness in Norway's tourism industry	113
2.12. Size distribution of municipalities	116
2.13. The composition of municipal and county expenditures and revenues	117