

OECD ECONOMIC SURVEYS

COLOMBIA

ISSN 0376-6438, e-ISSN 1609-7513

May 2017

Consulta en línea desde MEYSS

Table of contents

Basic statistics of Colombia, 2015 .....	8
Executive summary .....	9
Assessment and recommendations .....	13
The economy is adjusting well to the fall in global commodity prices .....	16
Macroeconomic policies are broadly appropriate .....	24
Reducing inequality by reigniting growth through structural reforms .....	28
References .....	52

Thematic chapters

Chapter 1. Reigniting growth through productivity-enhancing reforms .....	57
Trends in productivity across sectors, firms and regions .....	60
More and better public investment can boost productivity growth by reducing gaps in infrastructure .....	64
Further improve the business framework for investment and productivity growth .....	68
Skills development .....	73
Producing innovations and facilitating its diffusion to promote productivity gains .....	79
Facilitating integration into global value chains .....	83
Strengthen productivity-enhancing institutions .....	88
Policy Recommendations for reigniting growth by boosting productivity .....	89
References .....	89
Chapter 2. Towards more inclusive growth .....	93
Regional disparities influence inequalities .....	95
Gender gaps contribute to inequalities .....	97
Informality in the labour market contributes to inequalities .....	101
Taxes and transfers redistribute little .....	105
Low social mobility contributes to inequalities .....	114
Low financial inclusion is contributing to inequality .....	119
Policy recommendations to make growth more inclusive .....	123
References .....	124

Boxes

1. Vulnerabilities that are difficult to quantify.....	23
2. The expected economic impact of the peace agreement.....	23
3. The December 2016 tax reform.....	28
4. The 4th Generation Infrastructure Program (4G).....	42
5. Greening growth challenges.....	45
1.1. Key structural indicators for productivity diagnosis.....	60
1.2. How to make the most of public investment in Colombia.....	67
1.3. What are the main drivers of students' performance in Colombia?.....	78
1.4. Main determinants of GVC participation in Emerging Economies.....	88
2.1. Financial inclusion: Experience in selected countries.....	120

Tables

1. Macroeconomic indicators and projections.....	19
2. Central Government budget balance.....	25
3. Past OECD recommendations on monetary and fiscal policy.....	28
4. Past OECD recommendations to make growth more inclusive.....	37
5. Past OECD recommendations to boost growth.....	51
1.1. Comparison of CIT rates before and after the reform.....	72

Figures

1. GDP per capita has improved.....	14
2. Well-being has improved but remains low relative to OECD countries.....	15
3. Colombia has grown fast since the global financial crisis, but is facing external headwinds.....	17
4. Economic growth continues to be among the highest in the region.....	18
5. The exchange rate depreciated sharply putting pressure on prices.....	20
6. The value of exports has decreased in 2015.....	21
7. The financial system is sound.....	21
8. Financial inclusion is low.....	22
9. Fiscal revenues and gross public debt.....	26
10. Statutory corporate income tax rates are above OECD averages.....	27
11. The tax system does not distribute enough.....	27
12. Productivity is low.....	29
13. Inequality in GDP across households and regions is high.....	30
14. A high share of students do not attain basic skills.....	32
15. Gender gaps in employment are declining but persist in Colombia.....	33
16. Poverty remains high, especially amongst children and the elderly.....	35
17. Public social spending as a percentage of GDP by main components.....	36
18. Evolution in formal and informal job creation.....	38
19. Very few firms introduce new products to the market.....	39
20. Innovation increases with R&D engagement in firms.....	40
21. Firms collaborating on innovation with higher education or research institutions is low.....	41
22. Expenditure and projects under the 4G program.....	43
23. Infrastructure is of lower quality than in OECD countries.....	44
24. Green growth indicators for Colombia.....	46

25. Business regulation remains restrictive in multiple areas. ....	47
26. Regulation remains restrictive in the electricity, roads and rails sectors .....	48
27. The court system is slow to resolve commercial disputes. ....	49
28. Participation in GVCs is very low. ....	51
1.1. Productivity is low .....	58
1.2. Income gaps with OECD countries remain large because of low labour productivity 2014 .....	59
1.3. Value added of industry is relatively high, sustained by increases in construction and mining .....	61
1.4. Productivity per worker in the agricultural sector is relatively low .....	63
1.5. Productivity per worker in the service sector has increased but remains low. ...	64
1.6. Infrastructure is of lower quality than in OECD countries. ....	65
1.7. Public investment has increased above OECD average. ....	66
1.8. Business regulation remains restrictive in some areas .....	69
1.9. Regulation remains restrictive in the electricity, roads and rails sectors .....	70
1.10. Top combined statutory CIT rate is set to decrease but remains high. ....	72
1.11. The court system is slow to resolve commercial disputes. ....	73
1.12. The quality of management is relatively low. ....	74
1.13. A relatively high share of manufacturing firms are family owned and with a family CEO. ....	75
1.14. A high share of students do not attain basic skills .....	76
1.15. Higher spending in education increases math scores, particularly for low income students .....	78
1.16. There is a deficit of technicians and technologists. ....	79
1.17. Innovation in the manufacturing sector is relatively low .....	80
1.18. Very few firms introduce new products to the market. ....	80
1.19. Share of investment in intellectual property products .....	82
1.20. Firms collaborating on innovation with higher education or research institutions is low .....	82
1.21. Fixed broadband penetration is relatively low .....	83
1.22. The use of internet to interact with public authorities is low. ....	84
1.23. Significant effort has been made to promote trade integration .....	85
1.24. Participation in GVCs is very low. ....	86
1.25. Colombia's backward and forward participation in GVCs .....	87
1.26. Backward GVC participation: Ratio-relative contribution of policy and non-policy factors .....	87
1.27. The impact on GVC integration of other policies .....	88
2.1. Inequality and poverty remain high .....	94
2.2. Inequality in GDP per capita across regions is high .....	96
2.3. Gender gaps in labour force participation are declining but persist in Colombia. ....	98
2.4. The NEET rate is significantly higher among women. ....	99
2.5. Median gender wage gap of full-time employees, 2010-15 .....	100
2.6. Large earnings gap between formal and informal workers. ....	102
2.7. Informality is high. ....	102
2.8. Self-employment is widespread .....	103
2.9. The minimum wage is high .....	103

2.10. Evolution of formal and informal job creation .....	104
2.11. The tax and transfer system does little for redistribution1.....	106
2.12. Public social spending in Colombia is much lower than the OECD average ...	107
2.13. Pension coverage in LAC countries .....	108
2.14. Social pensions in Latin American countries .....	109
2.15. Health care is relatively affordable .....	110
2.16. Health care resources and access to care remain worse in rural and remote areas .....	112
2.17. Share of resilient students across OECD and LAC countries, 2015 .....	115
2.18. Participation rates in ECEC, by socio-economic level (2012) .....	116
2.19. Share of adult population that has attained at least upper secondary education, 2014. ....	117
2.20. Financial inclusion is low .....	120