

OECD ECONOMIC SURVEYS

TUNISIA

ISSN 0376-6438, e-ISSN 1609-7513

March 2018

Consulta en línea desde MEYSS

Basic statistics of Tunisia, 2016 .....	8
Acronyms .....	9
Executive summary .....	11
Assessment and recommendations .....	15
Solid progress for several decades in the political, social and economic fields ...	16
Growth is going to become stronger, but inflationary pressures and the twin deficits persist .....	22
Policies to restore macroeconomic balances without halting growth .....	26
Returning Tunisia to a path of inclusive and robust growth .....	38
Bibliography .....	53
Thematic chapters
Chapter 1. Reviving investment .....	57
Introduction and main conclusions .....	58
The investment rate has declined .....	58
Productivity is respectable, but gains are shrinking .....	64
Improving the business climate in order to boost productivity and returns on investment .....	66
Improving infrastructure .....	78
Removing constraints on the financing of investment .....	81
Bibliography .....	88
Chapter 2. Toward more inclusive growth: reducing inequalities through quality     job creation .....	91
Introduction and main findings .....	92
Promoting quality job creation .....	92
Toward a new regional development policy .....	112
Bibliography .....	124
Boxes
1. Budget law for 2018 .....	35
2. India's experience in reforming subsidies .....	37
3. Regulatory reform: impact on growth and debt sustainability .....	41
1.1. Export-only businesses and the "offshore" regime .....	72
1.2. The new investment law .....	75

1.3. Enhancing water security in Tunisia .....	80
1.4. Summary of recommendations for reviving investment .....	87
2.1. A regional strategy based on positive discrimination .....	118
2.2. Summary of recommendations to foster job creation and regional development .....	123

Tables

1. Recent developments and projections .....	25
2. Events which could affect economic performance .....	26
3. Fiscal outcomes1: principal data .....	30
4. Economic gains from reducing obstacles to competition .....	42
1.1. Infrastructure constraints as reported by businesses .....	62
1.2. Gross fixed capital formation by agent and sector .....	62
1.3. Business climate: the most problematic factors according to business leaders ..	67

Figures

1. Political transition: significant progress toward democracy .....	16
2. Indicators of well-being are fairly high, except for employment and income .....	18
3. The poverty rate has declined .....	19
4. The process of economic convergence has been gradual .....	20
5. The Tunisian economy has been resilient .....	20
6. Medium-term growth outlook based on the complexity of the economy .....	21
7. Macroeconomic indicators .....	23
8. Real wages have outpaced productivity .....	24
9. The devaluation of the dinar was not enough to reduce the current deficit ..	25
10. Bank profits in international comparison, 2015 or latest year available .....	27
11. The rate of lending is higher but remains weak .....	27
12. Non-performing loans are significant .....	28
13. Tunisia needs to return its public finances to a more sustainable path .....	31
14. The pension regime is generous but unsustainable .....	32
15. Tax revenues are relatively high in comparison to other emerging countries .....	33
16. Contributions to economic growth .....	38
17. Product market regulations are particularly restrictive .....	39
18. Impact of the different reform scenarios on growth .....	43
19. Changes in the ratio of public debt to GDP: past and future scenario .....	43
20. Tunisia's positioning in global value chains has progressed .....	45
21. Logistical performance has deteriorated .....	46
22. Trade could be facilitated .....	47
23. Informal employment is widespread .....	48
24. Social contributions depress formal employment .....	49
25. The unemployment rate varies greatly among regions .....	51
1.1. The investment rate has fallen since the start of the century .....	59
1.2. Investment is dominated by households and governments .....	59
1.3. A large proportion of Tunisians are homeowners .....	60

1.4. Public investment spending has remained relatively high .....	62
1.5. Flows and stock of foreign direct investment are relatively high .....	63
1.6. Productivity, investment and potential growth .....	64
1.7. Productivity: sharp differences between sectors but poor reallocation of resources .....	65
1.8. Tunisian businesses tend to remain small .....	66
1.9. The rate of business creation remains low .....	67
1.10. Barriers to entrepreneurship remain high .....	68
1.11. Retail trade regulations are restrictive .....	69
1.12. State control of businesses: PMR outcomes .....	70
1.13. Trade facilitation: competitiveness gains to realise .....	71
1.14. Contribution of offshore businesses to exports and the creation of formal employment .....	72
1.15. Statutory tax rate on corporations, 2017 .....	73
1.16. FDI restrictions have declined but remain high in certain sectors .....	77
1.17. Losses in the electric power network .....	78
1.18. Room for improvement in logistics performance .....	79
1.19. Financing constraints by size of enterprises .....	82
1.20. Self-financing plays an important but declining role .....	82
1.21. Bank lending remains weak and the recent increase has gone mainly to households .....	83
1.22. Credit information systems are rudimentary .....	83
1.23. Banks ask for significant collateral .....	84
1.24. Stock market performance .....	85
1.25. Investment capital is scarce and supports few new enterprises .....	86
2.1. GDP per capita has risen but still falls short of OECD countries .....	93
2.2. The poverty rate has declined .....	94
2.3. Living standard inequalities have diminished .....	95
2.4. Contribution of employment and unemployment to growth of the active population .....	96
2.5. Breakdown of the active employed population by sector of activity .....	96
2.6. The employment rate is low, especially for women .....	97
2.7. A large portion of the youth population aged 15 to 29 is neither in employment or education .....	98
2.8. The unemployment rate among higher education graduates is higher for women .....	99
2.9. Informal employment is widespread .....	101
2.10. Social contributions are a burden on formal employment .....	104
2.11. Employment protection legislation is strict for people on open-ended contracts .....	105
2.12. Financial inclusion is still weak .....	108
2.13. Banking services could be further developed .....	108
2.14. The level of education level is still fairly weak .....	110
2.15. The unemployment rate differs greatly between regions .....	112
2.16. The poverty rate has dropped in all regions .....	113
2.17. The regional development index reveals disparities between gouvernorats ..	114
2.18. Private enterprises are concentrated in a few regions .....	115
2.19. Differences in unemployment rates are significant .....	116
2.20. The education level differs more widely than in OECD countries .....	116
2.21. Internet access varies across regions .....	120
2.22. Territorial organisation .....	122