

ECONOMIC AND INDUSTRIAL DEMOCRACY

ISSN 0143-831X, e-ISSN 1461-7099

Vol. 44, n. 1, February 2023

Consulta en línea desde Intranet

Editorial

Editorial 3
Lars Magnusson and Jan Ottosson

Papers

- Why do labour platforms negotiate? Platform strategies in tax-based welfare states 6
Anna Ilseøe and Trine Pernille Larsen
- Institutional complementarities and technological transformation: IVET responsiveness to Industry 4.0 – meeting emerging skill needs in the European steel industry 25
Luca Antonazzo, Dean Stroud and Martin Weinel
- 'The circle of life': The role of life course in understanding job quality 47
Susan Belardi, Angela Knox and Chris F Wright
- Winning a battle against the odds: A cleaners' campaign 68
Elisa Pannini
- Why does Germany abstain from statutory bargaining extensions? Explaining the exceptional German erosion of collective wage bargaining 88
Wolfgang Günther and Martin Höpner
- The condition of European economic democracy: A comparative analysis of individual and collective employment rights 109
Andrew Cumbers, Karen Bilsland, Robert McMaster, Susana Cabaço and Michael White
- Nappies, books and wrinkles: How children, qualifications and age affect female underemployment in Australia 138
Parvinder Kler, Azhar Hussain Potia and Sriram Shankar
- Why don't employers hire long-term unemployed entitled to a wage subsidy? The employer's perspective on subsidised employment 161
Lars Behrenz and Jonas Månsson
- Economic and political determinants of the South African labour share, 1971–2019 184
Giorgos Gouzoulis, Collin Constantine and Joseph Ajefu