

ECONOMIC AND INDUSTRIAL DEMOCRACY

ISSN 0143-831X, e-ISSN 1461-7099

Vol. 37, n. 1, February 2016

Consulta en línea desde MEYSS

The Social Relations Approach, empowerment and women factory workers in Malaysia Lilian Miles	3
Social dumping cases in the Swedish Labour Court in the wake of Laval, 2004–2010 Erik Bengtsson	23
The joint impact of microeconomic parameters and job insecurity perceptions on commitment towards one's job, occupation and career: A multilevel approach Kathleen Otto, Gisela Mohr, Maria U Kottwitz and Sabine Korek	43
Moving beyond the dichotomy of workplace and community unionism: The challenges of organising migrant workers in London's hotels Gabriella Alberti	73
Engaging with flexibility and security: Rediscovering the role of collective bargaining Paul Marginson and Manuela Galetto	95
The prevalence and antecedents of employee stock ownership in Denmark Simon S Torp	119
Internal diversity and change in the UK: The changing forms and levels of coordination in wages and working conditions within the ceramic tableware sector 1945–2008 Neil J Lambert	145
Hyper-mobile migrant workers and Dutch trade union representation strategies at the Eemshaven construction sites Lisa Berntsen and Nathan Lillie	171
Union effectiveness: In search of the Holy Grail Gregor Gall and Jack Fiorito	189