

OECD ECONOMIC SURVEYS

JAPAN

ISSN 0376-6438, e-ISSN 1609-7513

December 2021

Consulta en línea desde Intranet

Executive summary	9
1 Key Policy Insights	14
The pandemic set back positive structural developments	14
The policy response helped keep cases relatively low	15
The economy rebounded from the initial shock, but growth remains subdued	17
Monetary and financial policies have been accommodative	22
Fiscal policy reacted robustly	29
Securing fiscal sustainability	32
Ensuring long-run environmental sustainability	39
Preserving well-being and raising employment	45
Improving business sector productivity	49
References	55
2 Making the most of digitalisation following COVID-19	60
The impact of the pandemic on the ongoing digital transformation	61
Where does Japan stand with respect to digitalisation?	62
Promoting the government's role in the digital transformation	65
The promises of digitalisation for businesses	73
Providing the skills for the digital transformation	85
References	97

OECD ECONOMIC SURVEYS

PORTUGAL

ISSN 0376-6438, e-ISSN 1609-7513

December 2021

Consulta en línea desde Intranet

Executive Summary	9
1 Key policy insights - Portugal	14
The COVID-19 crisis is threatening social and economic progress	15
Mitigating the social and economic impact of the pandemic	18
The COVID-19 outbreak has triggered a major health crisis	18
The economic recovery is fraught with risks	21
Policy support should continue, but adapt to the evolution of the pandemic	27
Strengthening macroeconomic fundamentals for a sustainable recovery	37
Improving the sustainability and the quality of public finances	37
Further enhancing the stability of the financial system	41
Policy reforms for more inclusive and greener growth	45
Tackling in-work poverty	45
Strengthening social assistance	47
Improving housing affordability	48
Adapting long-term care to fast population ageing	49
Moving towards a green and sustainable economy	51
Ramping up efforts to fight corruption and money laundering	54
References	60
Annex A. Progress on structural reforms	65
2 Getting the most of the digital transformation	66
Portugal needs to accelerate the digital transition	67
The digital transition can foster resilience and growth, but risks increasing inequalities	67
A large share of the population lacks digital skills	70
Firms' uptake of digital tools remains uneven	72
The COVID-19 crisis has accelerated some changes in firms' business models	73
The COVID-19 crisis can exacerbate existing gaps in digital innovation	75
A successful digital transition hinges on the effective implementation of the Action Plan for Digital Transition	77
Securing a safe and high-quality digital environment for all	78
Providing affordable access to high-quality communication infrastructure	78
Promoting the effective and inclusive development of digital government	83
Fostering digital security and improving users' perceptions	85
Equipping workers with the skills needed in a digital economy	88
Providing foundational and digital skills to all	90
Strengthening schools' capacity for ICT use for teaching	91
Addressing shortages in ICT and other STEM fields	92
Promoting adult education	94

Addressing barriers to the successful digital transition of SMEs	98
Increasing awareness and management competences	99
Removing barriers to firm growth	100
Diversifying financing sources for ICT and intangible investment	102
Supporting start-up activity	104
References	107