

OECD ECONOMIC SURVEYS

MOROCCO

ISSN 0376-6438, e-ISSN 1609-7513

September 2024

Consulta en línea desde Intranet

1. Key policy insights	18
1.1. Introduction	19
1.2. The economy is recovering steadily despite the devastating 2023 earthquake	20
1.3. A gradual shift towards inflation targeting would help bolster economic stability	27
1.4. Financial stability risks appear to be under control but vulnerabilities persist	29
1.5. Managing the public finances and ensuring the sustainability of reforms	31
1.6. Medium-term priorities for strengthening inclusive and sustainable growth	46
References	65
2. Boosting investment, firm performance and productivity	68
2.1. There is scope to boost productivity	69
2.2. Upskilling for greater productivity	76
2.3. Attracting more and higher-quality investment	78
2.4. Upgrading Morocco's value-added in global value chains	82
2.5. Providing incentives to invest and improving the business climate	87
2.6. Levelling the playing field	93
2.7. Leapfrogging through digitalisation	99
2.8. Innovating to catch up	100
References	105
3. Creating more and better jobs	109
3.1. The Moroccan labour market in international perspective	110
3.2. Tackling widespread informality	119
3.3. Reforms to reduce youth unemployment	126
3.4. Strengthening the role of women in the formal labour market	133
References	136