

EUROPEAN JOURNAL OF INDUSTRIAL RELATIONS

ISSN 0959-6801, e-ISSN 1461-7129

Vol. 30, n. 4, December 2024

Consulta en línea desde Intranet

Marginal part-time

Workers with few hours – who secures their social rights? – The role of social dialogue and collective bargaining 349

Trine Pernille Larsen and Anna Ilsøe

Dualisation and part-time work in France, Germany and the UK:
Accounting for within and between country differences in precarious work 363

Jill Rubery, Damian Grimshaw, Philippe Méhaut and Claudia Weinkopf

Unions and precarious work: How power resources shape diverse strategies and outcomes 383

Arjan Keizer, Mat Johnson, Trine P Larsen, Bjarke Refslund and Damian Grimshaw

Bringing labour market flexibilization under control? Marginal work and collective regulation in the creative industries in the Netherlands 403

Wike Been and Maarten Keune

Permanently marginalized? Securing living hours among part-time workers in hotels and restaurants in Northern Europe 421

Anna Ilsøe, Trine Pernille Larsen, Sissel Trygstad, Lorraine Ryan, Kristine Nergaard and Juliette McMahon

The varying national agenda in variable hours contract regulation: Implications for the labour market regimes in the Netherlands and Finland 441

Markku Sippola, Paul Jonker-Hoffrén and Satu Ojala