

OECD ECONOMIC SURVEYS

TÜRKİYE

ISSN 0376-6438, e-ISSN 1609-7513

10 April 2025

Consulta en línea desde Intranet

Foreword	3
Basic Statistics of Türkiye, 2023	7
Executive Summary	9
1 Staying the course on macroeconomic stabilisation	17
1.1. Macroeconomic policies are normalising	18
1.2. The tax and benefit system can become more efficient and inclusive	33
References	42
2 Removing the barriers to female labour market participation	46
2.1. Lifting labour force participation will be essential for future growth	47
2.2. Weak female participation hurts growth while having deep roots	48
2.3. Türkiye should continue its efforts to increase access to affordable high-quality childcare	50
2.4. Family and labour market policies that could help promote female participation	54
2.5. Promote equality between women and men into budgetary and decision-making processes	56
References	59
3 Steps towards green transformation in Türkiye	63
3.1. Achieving Türkiye's ambitious climate change objectives requires a detailed strategy	64
3.2. Pricing carbon to signal the need for a green transformation	70
3.3. Greening and expanding electricity generation to reduce emissions and bolster energy security	72
3.4. Better managing Türkiye's forests	78
References	82
4 Completing the transition to a competitive and innovative economy	88
4.1. Productivity will have to improve to continue the convergence process	89
4.2. Encouraging innovation and promoting the adoption of new technologies	91
4.3. Enhancing the skills of current and future workers	97
4.4. Buttressing business dynamism	106
References	126