

OECD ECONOMIC SURVEYS

NETHERLANDS

ISSN 0376-6438, e-ISSN 1609-7513

9 July 2025

Consulta en línea desde Intranet

Foreword	3
Basic statistics of the Netherlands, 2024	7
Executive Summary	8
1 Supporting growth while preserving strong public finances	17
1.1. The Dutch economy remains resilient	18
1.2. Financial risks appear contained but warrant continued monitoring	27
1.3. Fiscal adjustments are required to support public finances and growth	31
References	51
2 Advancing decarbonisation and adaptation policies	54
2.1. Climate goals appear out of reach despite progress in decarbonisation	55
2.2. Delivering additional and rapid mitigation to achieve 2030 targets	57
2.3. Stepping up electrification to deliver energy security and net zero	61
2.4. Continuing adaptation to contain the costs of climate change	64
References	68
3 Towards a more accessible and sustainable housing market	71
3.1. The Netherlands is struggling with a lack of affordable housing	72
3.2. Promoting housing tenure neutrality	74
3.3. Ensuring that housing supply is sufficient to meet demand	81
3.4. Towards a comprehensive longer-term strategy for the housing sector	86
References	88
4 Preserving trade competitiveness amidst increasing global fragmentation	91
4.1. Adapting to a changing global trade landscape to remain competitive	92
4.2. The Netherlands' competitiveness is underpinned by its open economy	94
4.3. Making supply chains more resilient	103
4.4. Leveraging digitalisation and AI to improve trade performance	114
4.5. Raising international competitiveness by fostering a dynamic and innovative business environment	117
References	129