

COMMON MARKET LAW REVIEW

ISSN 0165-0750

Vol. 62, No. 3 June 2025

Solicitud de artículos a la Biblioteca

Editors and publishers

Editorial comments: Seventy-five years of the Schuman Declaration. Pragmatism lay on the pace; idealism, on the goal 691–704

Articles

Barend Van Leeuwen, Repositioning free movement of services: A substantive perspective on the structure and dynamics of the internal market 705–746

Tamara Hervey and Marcin Michalak, European Union border law during the Covid-19 pandemic 747–796

Réka Somssich, How resilient will the Internal Market Emergency and Resilience Act be? 797–832

Johannes Melchior Blaschczok, Monetary sovereignty in the EU and the digital euro 833–878

Karen Mc Cullagh, EU adequacy assessments: Evolving criteria, political tensions, and the push for a global data standard 879–912

Case law

Fien Van Reempts, Putting the ball into the Member States' courts: Disapplication of national legislation contravening a Union directive in a horizontal situation based on national law in Gabel Industria 913–932

Jan Exner, Sports arbitration, doping and the GDPR: Tightening the judicial independence of non-judicial bodies in NADA and Others 933–954

Jean Félix Delile, From Vienna to Luxembourg: The Europeanization of international law as a tool for stabilizing the EU's relations with Morocco in Front Polisario II 955–984

Book reviews 985–1018