

INTERNATIONAL SOCIAL SECURITY REVIEW

e-ISSN 1468-246X

Vol. 78, n. 2-3, April/September 2025

Consulta en línea desde Intranet

Special double issue: Social security: Enabling and supporting resilience

Foreword Marcelo Abi-Ramia Caetano	3
Introduction Roddy McKinnon	5
Resilient people, resilient systems: The essential role of social protection in a polycrisis world Stephen Devereux and Ana Solórzano	11
Understanding organizational dynamism: Fostering creativity and agility for resilience in social security institutions Ran Bhamra and Ernesto Brodersohn	37
Exploring the resilience of social insurance systems in the light of endogenous welfare austerity: Insights from Sweden Angelica Börjesson and Lars Karlsson	55
Supporting coordinated approaches across health and social protection systems to enhance resilience Nathalie Both and Lou Tessier	79
Building resilient social protection: Lessons from Türkiye's earthquake response Oğuz Karadeniz	97
Social protection and the climate crisis: The case of Brazil's emergency responses to the 2024 Rio Grande do Sul floods Raquel Tebaldi	123
Do public works programmes foster climate resilience? Conceptual framework and review of empirical evidence Francesco Burchi, Anastasia Terskaya, Tekalign Gutu Sakketa and Elisabetta Aurino	145
Social protection and resilience in protracted crises Carolina Holland-Szyp and Jeremy Lind	173
Social assistance and informal social networks and the resilience of the population in Ukraine Olena Kupenko, Tetyana Ivanova, Andriana Kostenko and Valentyna Opanasiuk	191