

EUROPEAN LABOUR LAW JOURNAL

ISSN 2013-9525

Vol. 16, n. 4, December 2025

Consulta en línea desde Intranet

Guest Editorial

- Protecting platform workers in the European Union 427
Jeremias Adams-Prassl, Antonio Aloisi, Nicola Countouris, Valerio De Stefano and Silvia Rainone

Special Issue Contributions

- 'Not the usual gig': The personal scope(s) of application of Directive 2024/2831 on improving working conditions in platform work 432
Nicola Countouris and Valerio De Stefano
- Article 3 in the Platform Work Directive on intermediaries: Joint liability or joint employment? 452
Astrid Sanders
- Improving the transparency of algorithmic management in platform work: The role of the Platform Work Directive 472
Annika Rosin and Henni Parviainen
- The collective rights dimension of the Platform Work Directive: Assessing regulatory effectiveness in the digital labour context 494
Silvia Rainone
- The social security relevance of the Platform Directive 516
Alberto Barrio and Catherine Jacqueson
- From 'general' to 'context-specific' data protection for workers: Insights from the EU rules on platforms, algorithmic management and AI systems 538
Antonio Aloisi, Anne Joppe and Halefom Abraha
- A blunt tool for women* in platform work? A feminist perspective on the Platform Work Directive 565
Eva Kocher and Joanna Bronowicka
- Digital bazaars reimaged: Comparing platform work regulations in South Asia through the lens of the EU PWD and ILO standard-setting procedure 580
Malcolm Katrak and Zahra Yusifli