

OECD ECONOMIC SURVEYS

AUSTRALIA

ISSN 0376-6438, e-ISSN 1609-7513
January 2026

Consulta en Línea desde Intranet

Foreword	3
Executive summary	8
1 Key policy insights	16
1.1. Following recent shocks and fluctuations, Australia's economy is normalising	17
1.2. Monetary and financial policies are adapting to shifting conditions	25
1.3. Budgets are in deficit at both federal and state levels, and longer-term fiscal pressures need to be addressed	29
1.4. Raising medium-term economic prospects	40
1.5. Housing is expensive and in short supply	44
1.6. Greenhouse gas emissions are on a downward path, but further progress is needed	53
1.7. Enhancing the anti-corruption framework	66
References	69
2 Revitalising competition in the Australian economy	71
2.1. Competition across the Australian economy has waned in recent years	72
2.2. Business dynamism and price competition have weakened, while Australia faces unusual challenges in fostering competition	72
2.3. Competition policy is being significantly strengthened, but more vigorous enforcement and market oversight are needed	83
2.4. Regulatory fragmentation and anti-competitive restrictions hinder competition	89
2.5. Obstacles to competition remain high in some sectors	96
References	105